Explanation

Our non-profit is using this video to show how Dr. Ken embraces several nursing stereotypes which create a negative and wrong understanding of nursing and which leads to the undervaluation of nursing that is the underpinning of the global nursing shortage that takes millions of lives every year. We cannot get the funding nurses need to be able to expand their numbers from the current 15 million nurses to the 70 million needed worldwide and strengthen the quality of patient care (health care errors are the third leading cause of death) if the media is going to constantly distort nursing's image leading to gross disrespect of the profession. We are launching a campaign to ask the show to improve its depiction and we need the video (a series of clips, not the whole episode) to show those protesting why Dr. Ken is violating nursing's image. You can see more here http://www.truthaboutnursing.org/news/2015/oct/09_dr_ken_boot.html (the page is currently under construction)
